DELEGATE & SUCCESSOR DELEGATE ELECTION

1. The election will be supervised by the Conventions Election Committee. Members of this committee shall be ineligible to be candidates.
2. Challenges regarding a misapplication of these rules must be submitted in writing to the Conventions Election Committee no later than five days following the event which gives rise to the challenge. In the event that the Conventions Elections Committee's decision is unsatisfactory to the individual filing the challenge, their decision may be appealed to the Executive Committee. In the event that the Executive Committee's decision is unsatisfactory to the individual filing the challenge, their decision may be appealed to the Council of Delegates.
3. A member may be a candidate for one position, either delegate or successor delegate.
4. Members will elect 20 convention delegates and 20 successor delegates. The election term is for the 2022 AFT Convention. Delegates and successor delegates will be voted separately and ranked in order of votes received. (The highest total will be #1, etc.) The twenty candidates receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected.
5. If a run-off ballot is required to elect the 20th delegate, the ballot shall list the names of the tied candidates.
6. The exact number of delegates to which the B.T.F. will be entitled for the 2022 AFT Convention is unknown. In the event that the entitlement is fewer than 20 delegates, the delegate list will be completely canvassed in rank order for convention attendance prior to any canvassing of the successor delegate list.
7. The B.T.F. guarantees the funding of locally credentialed delegates who attend the convention for transportation and housing as arranged by the B.T.F. Subject to budgetary limitations, delegates will be provided with an allowance for food. Each delegate's funding shall be subject to compliance with attendance regulations which may be established by the Council of Delegates and the Executive Committee.
8. Events starred (*) in the Timetable for Election Procedures (are open to observers designated by the candidate.

November 18 – December 14, 2021

Notice of the positions to be filled shall be distributed to all teachers:

- a) Delegate Chairpersons will receive notices for posting on faculty bulletin boards.
- b) A special President's Report listing the vacancies will be issued.

Nominations will be accepted provided they are mailed to the Conventions Election Committee, c/o B.T.F., by certified mail, return receipt requested, or hand-delivered to the B.T.F. Office during normal business hours (9-5) when the office is open. Petitions must be received prior to the closing of nominations at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 14, 2021. Candidates or their agents who hand-deliver nomination forms must obtain a receipt for the nominating petition and must retain this receipt for any possible challenge related to the delivery of such petition. This receipt is the only proof that will be accepted as evidence of timely submission of the petition.

Nominations must be made on the forms which will be printed on the President's Report or on any reproduction, provided all pertinent information is present. Such petitions will carry the acceptance of the nomination for the position by the candidate.

Petitions for delegate will require the signatures of 5 B.T.F. members other than the candidate.

Petitions for successor delegate will require the signature of 3 B.T.F. members other than the candidate.
