June 29, 2023

Words can never express my deep heartfelt feelings of appreciation for your cards, emails, phone calls, office visits and your expressions of well-wishing at the supermarket... not only now but through my years with you.

What makes them so touching is that they come from current and retired teachers; those who I have always considered our caring, close-knit family.

You will remain in my thoughts and heart forever.

With love and hope for happiness,

Phil
